

3 When you are sick, there is a fire and car accident

If you feel unwell and cannot move, call 119.

If a fire breaks out, call 119.

If you are in a traffic accident, call 110

It's free. You are able to make a call at any time.

Call the numbers and say the following.

(1) When you suddenly feel sick or injured

Call "119". An Ambulance ( Kyūkyū Sha ) will come.

When you call, say the following

- ① " I'm not feeling well." ( I'm in bad shape or injured )
- ② Where you are now.
- ③ Age and gender ( man or woman ) of the person who is sick or injured.
- ④ Who did what?
- ⑤ Your name and phone number.

(2) When a fire breaks out

Call "119". A Fire Engine ( Shōbō Sha ) will come.

Say the following on the phone.

- ① "There is a fire."
- ② Where is the fire?
- ③ What is on fire?
- ④ Are there any injured people or people who failed to escape from the fire?
- ⑤ Your name and phone number.

(3) When a traffic accident occurs

Call "110". A Police Officer ( Keisatsu Kan / Kei Kan ) will come.

Say the following on the phone.

- ① "It's a traffic accident."
- ② When did the accident happen?
- ③ Where did the accident occur?
- ④ Are there any injured people?
- ⑤ Your name and phone number.

©The Difficult Words on pages 5 and 6 ©

※Ambulance ( Kyūkyū Sha ): Vehicles to transport injured or sick people.

※Fire Engine ( Shōbō Sha ): Cars with fire extinguisher

※Police Officer ( Keisatsu Kan / Kei Kan ): People working at a police station